OUR CHRISTMAS EXTRA. To-morrow will be is sued our grand Christmas Extra, containing, in full "No Thoroughfare," a Christmas story for 1867, written by Charles Dickens and Wilkie Collins. This Extra will consist of eight pages, or forty columns, of reading matter; and has been prepared and printed, at great labor and expense, by "our unaided enterprise," as a further evidence of our determination to make the "Daily News" the leading journal in the Southern States.

"No Thoroughfare" is a story of thrilling interest. Charles Dickens retains the humor and pathos of old; Wilkie Collins is vivid, mysterious, and full of power; the story is fascinating and absorbing from the first word to the last.

Our Christmas Extra will be issued to-morrow, free of charge, to all our regular readers and sub-the Baptist Banner will be pleased to learn that the first number of the seventh volume will appear on the first Saturday in January. We invite the attention of our readers to the prospectus which appears in our advertising columns.

ROBBERY AT THE PAVILION HOTEL .- The pastry cook employed at the Pavilion Hotel was deprived some time since of $52.50 in silver and $65.00 in greenbacks. This loss affected him seriously, and he laid the matter before the detectives for a solution. Certain parties who were suspected have

MOZART'S GRAND MASS. - A rehearsal of this celebrated mass took place at St. Mary's Church yesnumber of the professional and amateur musi cians of the city, and the mass was rendered in an ed by the music clustered around the portico, and choir were in admirable training, and it was conceded that the performance of the mass could not

Business Activity .- With the opening of this week the business in the different branches of trade has been much brisker. Greenbacks have been more plentiful and a liberal display of Spinner's colors soon drove away the blues. The Kingstreet stores were crowded yesterday with buyers, preparing their Christmas gifts, and the Express Company's large office was crowded with goods to be sent to various parts of the country. Every clerk was kept busy and the whole presented a scene of life, bustle and activity that was in pleasing contrast to the dulness of the past week.

A BOLD OUTRAGE.-The Columbia Phoenix says that some eight freedmen, near Gadsden, on Friday last, boldly took possession of a wagon and four mules, and two mules, with two bales of cotton, belonging to Mr. Mosely, and took the property forcibly away. Five of the freedmen were arrested by the police, and a warrant was issued on Saturday for the arrest of all the parties. The vigilance of Mr. Radcliffe, Chief of the Columbia Police, caused the arrest of two others of the gang of robbers, in that city, on Saturday, and the remaining one of the party will probably be captured. This is one of the boldest and most flagrant outrages yet perpetrated in Richland District.

UNITED STATES COURT, HON. GEO. S. BRYAN PRE-SIDING .- This Court, which has just adjourned its session in Columbia, resumed its sittings in this city yesterday. Judge Bryan, the United States District Attorney, Major D. T. Corbin; United Marshall Epping, Daniel Horlbeck, Esq., the Clerk of the Court, and the other officers who were absent, have returned to the city after their arduous labors with renewed health and spirits, and the Winter term will be opened shortly after the holi-

The adjudication of bankruptcy, with the consent of the bankrupt, was signed by the Judge, and, on motion of G. W. FAIR OF THE MORBIS-STREET BAPTIST CHURCH, COLORED.-The congregation of this church have opened a Fair in the second story of the building lately occupied by the National Express Company, and a glance at the internal decorations convinced us that they have not expended their energies uselessly. A Christmas tree towers in the centre, and from its branches are pendant sundry toys that are exchanged for fractional currency. At about five hundred whites and eight hundred each end of the hall are tables where the good blacks, most of the former being widows with large things of this life are dispensed, while at intervals families. EVERGREENS.—A brisk business was done in this ine yesterday, and the forests in the neighborhood of the city were denuded of their fairest boughs, while saplings were torn from the ground and used either for the purpose of decorating some building or for Christmas trees. Before the doors of the Catholic and Episcopal churches the quantity of pine and holly bushes that were strewn over the pavement impeded travel, and compelled the passer-by to take a wide circuit. A nun. ser of Christmas trees have been cut, and will be erected in different households, while the Sunday schools, and other societies that celebrate the occasion in this same manner, will also make a heavy draft on the woods for a supply of the natural beauties of PANORAMA OF COLUMBIA .- The Hibernian Hall will be reopened to-night, and the Panorama of the City of Columbia exhibited to the public. This painting has been extalled as a life-like representaion of the capital of the State before the flames had destroyed its beauty and left sightless ruins in the place of noble mansions and blooming gardens. During the war Columbia was the resort of many who had been driven from their homes on the coast, and these, and all who remember Columbia as it was and is, will gladly renew their acquaintance with the familiar scenes now depicted on the canvas. The time embraced in the views extends from 1860 to 1865, and includes all of the most noted features of the city during that period. The Panorama is undoubtedly a work of great merit, and as the price of admission is quite low, it should be seen by all who have ever visited the once beautiful capital of the Palmetto State.

THE TURKEY QUESTION. -One of our friends, mindful of the honors due to the day of mince pies and good living, in time procured a splendid gobbler, and nurtured him with tender care. Engrossed though he was with the anxieties of business, he managed to steal a few minutes two or three times a day to sate his eyes on the bird of Paradise. A state dinner was arranged, to do honor to Christmas and the turkey. The invations were issued. The chif-de-cuisine with all his sooty adjutants were busy with the great preparations of the hour. All went merry as a dinner bell, till in an evil hour Æthiopia stretched forth her hand, and-Turkey was no more. The place that had known it knew it no more. Though not the work of an honest man, a non-est turkey was the consequence. There was lamentation and wailing in the house of our friend; but all in vain. The evil could not be remedied. It was too late. Messengers were dis patched to countermand the invitations, and the unfortunate victim of the impromptu confiscation has accepted an invitation to take his Christmas dinner with one of his friends.

CHRISTMAS EVE.-With Christmas Eve the holidays may practically be said to commence though according to ecclesiastical computation the festival really begins on the 16th of De cember, and is continued to February 1st, or the evening before Candlemas Day. In common parlance the Christmas holidays comprehend a period of nearly a fortnight, commencing on Christmas Eve and ending on Twelfth Day. The whole of this season is one of joyful entertainment and merry-making. The origin of the different Christmas customs date - back to remote ages. After the conversion of Britain to Christianity, the Christian teachers engrafted the rites of their religion on the old heathen ceremonies. closing at the Charleston Postoffice on Tuesdays, By this amalgamation the festivities of the Roman Saturnalia, the ceremonies observed by the British Druids at the period of the Winter solstice and the grim mythology of the ancient Saxons, became incorporated in the Christian church and formed part the Christmas observances. Among Roman Catholics a mass is colebrated at midnight on Christmas Eve, another at daybreak on Christmas day, and a third at a subsequent hour in the morning. In both the Catholic and Episcopal Churches it is the practice to decorate the interior of the buildings with evergreens in commemoration of the Nativity. Christmas Eve obtains its greatest celebrity from the Christmas Tree which is arranged either for this night or for the following norning. Before retiring the children of the household hang up their stockings at the foot of the bed to be filled by Kris Kringle. If any one has been naughty a rod is placed in the stocking and the gifts are withheld. The Christmas Tree is a common innovation on old English customs, but it has been generally adopted as one of the pageants of the festival. The burning of the Yule log, and the legends connected with the Mistletoe are things which are fast fading into mere Christmas memories. But we still cling to the glad family gatherings and the social reunions which mark the day as a time of peace and good will among men.

AN EXCELLENT EXAMPLE—THE ECONOMY OF THE FREEDMEN.-The freedmen in this State have been orderly and quiet beyond all expectation, and, while many have not made themselves to understand the necessity of hard and continuous work. there are hundreds in this city who are giving their less sensible brethren an excellent example of economy and thrift. Tables published by the Freedman's Savings and Trust Company show that, in the month of November, the total deposits in the Charleston office amounted to $47,911; this being largely in excess of the amount deposited in the offices at Baltimore, Mobile, New York, Richmond and Augusta. At Beaufort, S. C., office, at the same time, the deposits were no less than terday evening. The choir were assisted by a $48,618, showing that the freedmen in this State have saved and laid up in bank more money than has been done in any other State in the Union. admirable manner. were deposited. The National Savings Banks, as the Freedman's Saving and Trust Company is called, are chartered by Congress, and the signing of the bill creating them was one of the last official acts of President Lincoln. All deposits are perfectly secure and can be drawn without notice. Deposits of hard money are repaid in hard money; interest is allowed on all deposits, and all the profits belong to the depositors.

In this city the office of the Freedman's Savings Bank and Trust Company is at No. 9 State-street, and Mr. Nathan Ritter is the Cashier. This gentleman gives notice in the "News" of this morning that money deposited on or before January 20, 1868, is entitled to interest as if it were deposited on January 1st, which gives 'he depositor an advantage to two or three weeks, interest. Mr. Ritter also publishes a card of the bank which should be read and studied by every freedman who knows he value of his dimes and dollars, and who wishes o make a provision for bamself and family in the imes of sickness or want of employment. Money laid up at home will asstredly be spent; money deposited in bank can be Jrawn out when required. but is out of the way o' daily and hourly temptations. One dollar so red will soon grow into two; our hundreds of fregal freedmon can, if they will, soon be numbered by thousands.

THE FREEDMEN'S BUREAU AND THE INDIGENT POOR .- The in ormation received from Washing ton that General R. K. Scott, the present Assist ant Commissioner of the Bureau for this State, would be retained in his position until further orders, has given general pleasure to those who, though not friends of the institution, desired to see it conducted with judgment and sound discretion. Since General Scott assumed charge of the Bureau he has endeavored to control it for the penefit of those for whom it was designed, and the lestitute poor of the city, both white and black, have frequently had cause to appreciate its aid. Without entering upon a panygeric of the Bureau, it is not, therefore, improper at this time to consider some of its workings, and award praise

In August last it was decided to discontinue the distribution of rations to the destitute, and numbers who were dependent on the Bureau for a support were thrown upon their own resources. The omparative failure of the crops, which was folowed by a scarcity of money, increased the destitution, especially among the laboring classes many of whom were thrown out of employmen At his urgent solicitation, however, General Scott was allowed to continue the bounty of the Bureau to a limited extent. The number of registered beneficiaries in this city and the suburbs was

During the past year over fifteen hundred overcoats were given to the poor, principally aged and infirm negro men. At present these supplies are confined to the colored women, who are constant applicants for this bounty.

The changes recently made by Gen. Scott in the discharge of several of his officials for meddling with politics, have been sustained by Gen. Howard-Some of the parties who were discharged went to Washington and endeavored to procure their reinstalment, but failed to convince the authoritie of their innocence, and only enjoyed their trouble

I have always recommended the Faber Polygrade Lead Pencils as the only pencils fitted for both ornamental and mathematical drawing; but, after a thorough trial of the American Polygrade Lead Pencils, manufactured by the American Lead Pencil Company, New York, I find them superior to any pencil in use, even to the Faber or the old English Cumberland Lead Pencil, being a superior pencil for sketching, ornamental and mechanical drawing, and all the ordinary uses of a lead pencil. pencil.

These pencils are very finely graded and have a very smooth lead; even the softest pencils hold the point well; they are all that can be desired in a pencil. It gives me great pleasure to be able to assure Americans that they will no longer be compelled to depend upon Germany or any other foreign market for pencils.
